About the Opportunity:

A supplier is required to provide training to designated officers on the powers contained in the London Olympic and Paralympic Act 2006 and the requirements of the associated Regulations. The supplier is required to equip these officers with a working knowledge of such powers and these regulatory requirements in day long training seminars across the country between March and May 2012.

About the buyer's selection process:

Description The Olympic Delivery Authority will award contracts to businesses that reflect London 2012's procurement policies and values. Value for money on costs, time, quality, design and functionality, the promotion of equality and diversity, environmental responsibility, and legacy are key values that embody the ODA's procurement objectives.

Following shortlisting conducted on the CompeteFor system, you will be required to submit a quote directly to the ODA project manager. You will be instructed further on this process following shortlisting.

During the procurement process suppliers may be required to provide supporting evidence within 24 hours, there may also be an additional stage added following shortlisting and prior to the quotation stage.

Post the Tender closing date, all suppliers will be notified of their status via email and will be able to view who the opportunity was awarded to.

About the buyer:

The Olympic Delivery Authority (ODA) is the public body responsible for developing and building the new venues and infrastructure for the 2012 Olympic Games and their use after 2012. The ODA buys goods, services and works ranging from construction, engineering and manufacturing to creative, merchandising and retail.
