Opportunity Method Contract Opportunity

Opportunity Type London 2012 supply chain (private sector)

Nature of Opportunity Works

Estimated contract value (GBP) Not disclosed

About the Opportunity:

LOCOG is seeking a supplier or suppliers to design, supply, install, maintain, service and remove (upon completion of the event) all temporary structures and overlay works at a number of venues in the UK for a series of Olympic Games test events in 2011 (commencing end of May). The supplier will act as Principal Contractor for the venue and will need to work with London 2012 Official Partners and suppliers to source specified products and services.

Description The supplier will be required to work closely with LOCOG to define an appropriate solution.

Commodities required may include some or all of the following:

- Temporary seating stands plus accessible seating positions
- Temporary roof structures
- Tent structures
- Portable buildings including toilets and changing facilities
- Air-conditioning to tent structures, portable buildings and existing spaces
- Temporary fencing and barriers
- Power generators and distribution

- Temporary paths and surfaces
- Fields Of Play (FOP) including warm-up and training
- Field of play lighting
- Tribunes for press and broadcasting
- CCTV, lighting, public address and security overlay
- Hard standings and drainage
- Signage
- General builders works
- Miscellaneous temporary structures (e.g. platforms, bridges)

About the buyer's selection process:

Responses to these CompeteFor questions will be evaluated and a shortlist of potential suppliers will be prepared. Successful applicants will be those which, in LOCOG's sole opinion, are most capable of fulfilling LOCOG's requirements as set out in this opportunity.

Successful shortlisted suppliers will be e-mailed with details of next steps after the opportunity has closed on CompeteFor. In addition to responding to these questions on CompeteFor, applicants should be prepared to provide evidence to their responses, in the event of being shortlisted.

Bidders should note that LOCOG may manage the next phase of the procurement process online using our eTendering system.

LOCOG operates a fair and transparent procurement process. Further information on the values that underpin LOCOG procurement can be found in our Diversity and Inclusion Business Charter, available here on the London 2012 website:

LOCOG's view of value for money is different to that of some other companies. In support of our vision for London 2012 (as described in the 'About the buyer' section below), we must consider a broad range of criteria when assessing proposals from bidders. As such, LOCOG defines value for money on the basis of a range of criteria, namely:

- Quality, delivery and disposal
- Commercial
- Sustainability
- Diversity and inclusion
- Legal, financial, health and safety

For further information about LOCOG and our procurement process, please read the LOCOG Invitation to Tender (ITT) Part 1 which is available on the London 2012 website:

About the buyer:

LOCOG is responsible for preparing and staging memorable Olympic and Paralympic Games in 2012. LOCOG is also responsible for staging a series of Test Events in the run-up to the Games; recruiting and training volunteers; and overseeing the four-year Cultural Olympiad leading up to the Games.

Find out more about LOCOG and the people delivering the Games:
<http://www.london2012.com/about-us>

LOCOG's vision is to use the power of the Games to inspire lasting change.

This means change in people's lives; in levels of sport participation; in attitudes to disability; and change in the communities across London, particularly east London. It means change in attitudes towards sustainability and protecting the world we live in; in how everyone participates and engages with the Games; and in how cities host the Games.

To realise this vision we aim to deliver Games that:

- provide experiences of a lifetime;
- capture the imagination of young people all over the world; and
- create physical, social and sporting legacies to meet the long-term needs of people and their communities.

Our suppliers will play a critical role in helping LOCOG to stage a memorable Games and supporting the delivery of our vision for London 2012. LOCOG contract opportunities cover a range of goods and services, split into eight different categories:

- Artists, performance and events
- Facilities management and catering
- Security
- Services
- Sports
- Technology
- Transport and logistics
- Venues and infrastructure

We will periodically update and share our schedule of future CompeteFor opportunities. View the latest information on the London 2012 website:
