Igniting Ambition Festival 2011 - Northamptonshire

Igniting Ambition Festival 2011 – Northamptonshire

About: A unique festival for the county that showcases a diverse range of projects being delivered across the county as part of the Cultural Olympiad programme in the East Midlands. The programme has been designed to engage young people and local communities through exceptional cultural projects, events and festivals that celebrate the county's rich cultural heritage, outstanding natural environment and hidden gems.

The festival therefore introduces a number of new ambitious projects and partnerships such as FLOW, Formula Fashion and SHINE and presents a fantastic opportunity to showcase and promote the very best of the county's cultural assets to local, regional, national and international audiences in advance of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The programme has been made possible through funding from Legacy Trust UK and the European Regional Development Fund, with support from key partners Arts Council England and Northamptonshire County Council, and many others. Legacy Trust UK is an independent charity set up to create a cultural and sporting legacy from the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games across the UK.

Daventry Arts Festival

About: The first ever Daventry Arts Festival sees a week of exciting, entertaining and fun arts events and activities, including drama, comedy, poetry, orchestral music, and a special event celebrating Daventry as the place where the BBC World Service was born. There will also be a carnival procession, an all day folk/world music concert, and a local talent competition, so there is something for everyone and we hope to see the town buzzing all week. And don't miss Shedman, our resident poet, who will be in his shed all week at the entrance to the New Street Recreation Ground!

Our special BBC World Service event features Terry Waite and his cousin, broadcaster John Waite, who made programmes specifically to be heard by Terry Waite, knowing he was able to listen to the World Service in captivity. They will talk about the importance of the World Service to them both.

Our visiting artists include VIVA Sinfonia orchestra, Yorkshire poet, broadcaster and comedian Ian McMillan, Cartoonist of the Year Tony Husband, acoustic band Paper Aeroplanes, comedy swing whoopee band Hot Potato Syncopators, folk/world music band Sheelanagig, a double bill from Leicester Comedy Festival and drama from Northants Touring Arts.

Enabled by Daventry Business Partnership, Arts Council England, Legacy Trust, Northamptonshire County Council, Field Day Arts and many more supporters, with the aim of bringing exciting, high quality arts to the town. We are grateful to all our festival funders and supporters.

Daventry Arts Festival is part of Igniting Ambition, a Cultural Olympiad programme in the East Midlands which invests in projects and people that take the London 2012 Games as their inspiration to create once-in-a-lifetime cultural opportunities for audiences and communities. Igniting Ambition is funded by Legacy Trust UK, an independent charity set up to create a cultural and sporting legacy from the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games, the European Regional Development Fund and the East Midlands Development Agency, with the support of Arts Council England and many others.
